

Our Mission

The Fox Chapter of the American Needlepoint Guild, Inc.

is a non-profit learning and sharing organization of novice, intermediate and advanced needlepoint stitchers interested in and dedicated to promoting the art of needlepoint through the study of history, uses and forms and to encourage creativity in adapting its form to modern usage.

Policies

- Guests are welcome but must pay the kit fee, if any. Guests are welcome to attend two (2) general meetings, after which they are expected to become members.
- No food or beverage should be on the worktables at meetings or workshops.
- Stitched nametags must be worn at all meetings or pay a fine of 25 cents.
- Children not of stitching age are not allowed at meetings.

Workshop Policies

- Kit and teacher fees are payable in advance.
- The Chapter reserves the option to open the workshop to other chapters if minimum enrollment is not met.
- Classes will begin and end on time.
- No refunds, but you may sell your space. Check with the Program Chair to see if there is a waiting list. If your name is on a class list after the deadline date, you must pay all class fees.

Correspondence Course Policies

- Courses will be self-supporting; therefore, Chapter funds will not be used.
- Purchase of pins will be the responsibility of the participant.
