Star Heart by Nancy Cucci is featured in Needle Pointers January/February 2022. The digital version can be accessed by ANG members at www.needlepoint.org following these steps:

- Log into the ANG site with your credentials
- Select the first pull-down menu entitled Members
- From the Members menu, select Needle Pointers Magazine and the sub-menu, Archived Needle Pointers Magazines
- Click on the image for 2020 to Current
- Look for the January/February 2022 issue with four hearts on the cover and click on the image, then select View
- Using the side arrows, flip to Pages 20 – 28, which are the instructions for the Star Heart
- You can choose a print range to only print specific pages, if you wish, vs the entire issue

Ground Fabric Provided by the Guild

The guild will provide 10 x 10 white 18-count canvas for each participating member at the January meeting along with a complete master graph provided by Nancy Cucci. (The magazine contains a partial graph due to space limitations.) We will begin stitching the outline together in January as pre-work. Please wait until the January meeting to begin. At that time, we will be discussing the Continental method.
