

Our Mission

The Fox Chapter of the American Needlepoint Guild, Inc.

is a non-profit learning and sharing organization of novice, intermediate and advanced needlepoint stitchers interested in and dedicated to promoting the art of needlepoint through the study of history, uses and forms and to encourage creativity in adapting its form to modern usage.

Policies

- Guests are welcome at meetings. Guests may attend two (2) general meetings before they are expected to join. If a kit fee is required for the meeting they visit, the required kit fee must be paid by the guest.
- No food or open beverages should be on the worktables at meetings, workshops or special programs while stitching.
- Stitched nametags must be worn at all meetings or pay a fine of 25 cents.
- Children not of stitching age are not allowed at meetings.

Workshop/Special Programs Policies

- All necessary fees are to be paid in advance.
- The Chapter reserves the option to open the workshop/special program to other chapters if minimum enrollment is not met.
- Classes will begin and end on time.
- If your name is on the class list after the deadline date, you must pay for the class. You may sell your space to another person but there are no refunds.

ANG Correspondence Course Policies

- Courses will be self-supporting, meaning chapter funds will not be used.
- Purchase of pins will be the responsibility of the stitcher.
